Classes Begin Thursday September 10th 2009 @ Excellence in Education

Beginning Writers I/Level A- Recommended for Upper Elementary Grades 4-6 First year writing students or students needing another year before moving to level II. Must have some knowledge of grammar and punctuation. By the end of this course students will be able to create outlines, write an essay, create fictional stories, identify elements of literature, participate in oral presentations, develop proficiency in IEW Structure and Style, and culminate with a self-publishing project. *May be repeated. Thursdays from 1:00-2:30

Beginning Writers II-Level B Recommended for Experienced Middle School IEW students not yet ready for High School level writing. This class reviews and builds upon previously taught skills and prepares students for high school level writing. This year students will focus on advanced writing techniques at an appropriate pace for the middle school student. May be repeated until ready for advanced class. Thursdays from 9:00-10:30

Intermediate Writers I/Level A/B- Recommended for Upper Middle to High School students (grades 7-10) who are new to IEW curriculum or for those students needing a refresher course. This course covers all the skills taught in Beginning Writers I but geared towards the older student. Thursdays from 3:00-4:30.

Advanced Writers Level C- (grades 9 -12) This class is for High School level students with writing experience. Students will focus on advanced IEW structure and style techniques, additional college prep skills such as note-taking during lectures, research and report writing, persuasive essays, SAT essay prep college admission essays, literature and analysis, and creative writing. Students will also give oral presentations and participate in collaborative projects. Thursdays from 10:30-Noon
